STATE TREASURER RESPONDS TO ESA PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

State Treasurer Dan Schwartz issues a response to Carson City District Judge James Wilson's order granting motion for preliminary injunction of the Education Savings Account (ESA) program.

"We are obviously disappointed with Judge Wilson's opinion preventing the State Treasurer from implementing the ESA program. We believe Judge Wilson simply assumed his conclusions without citing any evidence. Our office is currently discussing an appeal with the Attorney General, so that we may honor the Nevada Constitution and the Legislature's intent to improve our children's education. We expect to update Nevada families as soon as more information becomes available," says Treasurer Schwartz.
